

Procedure for the co-option of a Councillor for the Wrecclesham & Rowledge Ward

This procedure is based on the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) Legal Briefing LI5-08 – Good practice for selection of candidates for co-option to local Councils.

Parish Councils are permitted to exercise the power to co-opt a person on to the Council to fill a casual vacancy when the requirements to hold an election have not been met (i.e. the vacancy was the subject of a public notice and less than 10 registered electors requested a by-election by the published deadline).

NALC recommends that Councils always give public notice of vacancies because this makes the process of co-option open and transparent and should attract more potential candidates.

Farnham Town Council is advertising the vacancy in the Farnham Herald on 26th October, on its noticeboards, on its website www.farnham.gov.uk and through social media with an application form to be completed by 30th November 2022.

All potential candidates should put their application in writing (an application form is attached) with the following information to assist Council in making its decision:-

- i. Name, address and contact details.
- ii. Reason for wishing to be co-opted as a councillor;
- iii. Confirmation of eligibility to become a councillor

Prior to the next Full Council meeting on 15th December:

- i) The Town Clerk will check that each candidate is qualified to become a Councillor and is not disqualified from being a Councillor as set out in the Local Government Act 1972 s79 and s80;
- ii) The completed application forms will be circulated to Councillors with the agenda for the meeting. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and Councillors as strictly private and confidential.

At the meeting on 15th December:

- i. The election of the councillor will be an agenda item on the public part of the agenda. Candidates will be invited to speak for three minutes in support of their statement of why they would like to be co-opted. Councillors may ask questions of each candidate for a further three minutes.
- ii. If a Councillor is a relative or has connections with any candidate which may be perceived as prejudicial, that Councillor should declare an interest and withdraw from the meeting and will not be allowed to vote.

- iii. Voting is in accordance with standing orders and will be in public. A voting form may be produced depending on the number of candidates.
- iv. The successful candidate should receive an absolute majority vote of those present and voting. So if there are more than two candidates for the vacancy and none of them at the first count has an overall majority, the candidate with the fewest votes should be eliminated and the remainder put to the vote again. The process should be repeated as necessary until one candidate has an overall majority. The Mayor has a second and casting vote in the event of a tie.
- v. The successfully co-opted candidate will become a Councillor in his/her own right, with immediate effect once the Declaration of Acceptance of Office has been signed. The successful candidate will also need confirm that they will comply with and abide by the Town Council's Code of Conduct, The Registration of Interests Form must be completed within 28 calendar days of appointment.
- vi. Any application can be considered in the candidate's absence.
- vii. As soon as practicable following co-option, the successful councillor will be invited to attend an Induction and Training session with the Town Clerk.
- viii. The co-opted councillor is no different to any other councillor and will serve until the next elections on 4th May 2023, retiring four days after the date of election.
